

DBS Acceptable Forms of ID List

Your post requires a DBS check to be carried out, which will be done on-line. The online form will require details of ALL names you have used, since birth. Please ensure that you remember to include middle names.

You will also need to provide details of ALL addresses you have lived at over the past 5 years (including full postcodes). Include overseas addresses where applicable. Addresses can overlap - but there must not be any gaps. It is important that you also include temporary addresses such as student accommodation.

All documentary evidence should:

- Be issued by a trustworthy and reliable source (no online statements/bills unless stamped by the issuing authority)
- Be valid, dated and current (see lists and denotations for further details)
- Contain your full name, photograph and signature where applicable (see lists for further details)
- Have been issued in the UK unless otherwise stated. Documents containing the applicant's current address are marked with an asterisk.
