Request Under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 Sir/Madam

Question 1. How many incidents of paranormal activity have been reported by staff, patients or visitors in East London NHS Foundation Trust hospitals between 2011 to present?

Question 2. What was the nature of the reports?

Question 3. Were any actions taken as a result of these reports and what were they?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the FOI Act states:

Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.

The Trust does not record the information requested and it is therefore not disclosable.
