Request:

Question 1. Please identify the name of your NHS Trust.

Answer: East London NHS Foundation Trust.

Question 2. Does your Trust now, or has it since start-2011, used the Owl Centre to provide any health service(s)?

Answer: No.

Question 3. If this Trust does, or did, when did the contract start and when did it finish, or does it remain current?

Answer: Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.

East London NHS Foundation Trust has not used the Owl Centre to provide any health service. The Trust does not hold the information requested and is therefore unable to disclose it to you.

Question 4. If it does/did, what service did the Owl Centre provide – for example speech and language therapy, ADHD or autism diagnosis or support.

Please say which condition, disorder or illness and whether to assess, diagnose/screen, or treat/support.

Answer: Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.

East London NHS Foundation Trust has not used the Owl Centre to provide any health service. The Trust does not hold the information requested and is therefore unable to disclose it to you.

Question 5. Please provide any information available about the contract, for example (but not limited to) how many assessments or treatments they should provide per month/year.

Answer: Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—

(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and

(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to him.
