Question 2. How many of the individuals who died whilst recieving in-patient psychiatric				Answer:
care were detained under the Mental Health Act 1983?		Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states: Section 12(1) does not oblige a public authority to comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit
	When the Trust identifies that the request is likely to take over 18 hours, we are not obliged to provide information for any part of the request. We are required to provide advice on how you may refine your request to information that can be collated within the 18 hour timeframe. You may then choose what information you would like to receive and confirm the same to us, upon which we will process your request. The Trust has reviewed your request for information and in order to collate this information, staff would have to review individual records and estimates that it would take approximately 33 hours to collate.
