

Research & Innovation @ ELFT

Wednesday, 1 November 2023

Programme

#ELFTResearch

Chair – Afia Ali

2:00 pm	Karin Albani	Welcome
2:10 pm	Aisling Murray	Body mapping for arts-based inquiry in mental health and resilience research
2:20 pm	Nicki Power	Analysing interviews of people with learning disabilities' experiences of art therapy using creative methods
2:30 pm	Elissa Thompson	Recognising autism in women and people assigned female at birth who are diagnosed with personality disorder
2:40 pm	Rhiannon Foster	Exploring how to make peer support relevant and helpful in the context of Personality Disorder and Complex Emotional Needs services
2:50 pm	Kelly Wintsch	One to one peer support for family members and friends of patients treated under the mental health act
3:00 pm	Natasha Wilding de Miranda	Attitudes of CAMHS Clinicians Towards a Diagnosis of Personality Disorder in Adolescence
3:10 pm	Siew Fung Lee	Healthier Wealthier Families in East London
3:20 pm	Erica Cini	Paediatric Admissions for Eating Disorder from Parents' and Carers' View

3:30 pm Break

Chair – Kirsten Barnicot

4:15 pm	Samuel Hayward	Re-imagining crisis care
4:25 pm	Ben Hoi-Ching Wong	Association between continuity of care and attendance of post-discharge follow-up after psychiatric emergency presentation
4:35 pm	Vimmy Venugopal	Investigations for Global Developmental Delay at SCYPS
4:45 pm	Tracey Dorey	Developing an intervention to improve Type 2 diabetes care for adults with a severe mental illness
4:55 pm	Kathleen Mulligan	Caring for older people with pressure ulcers
5:05 pm	Liz Sampson	Using public and policy engagement to leverage change in dementia care
5:15 pm	Natalia Chemas	Satisfaction with sex life among patients with schizophrenia
5:25 pm	Frank Röhricht	Closing Remarks

In collaboration with:

