Request:

I am writing on behalf of the UKKA AKI Special Interest Group Innovation and Improvement workstream to submit a formal Freedom of Information (FOI) request. As part of our ongoing work to better understand the delivery and effectiveness of Acute Kidney Injury (AKI) services across healthcare organisations, we are seeking information on the current AKI services and practices within your organisation.

We would appreciate it if the requested information could be provided in a timely manner, ideally within the 20 working days outlined in the Freedom of Information Act. If any of the requested information is exempt from disclosure, we would be grateful if you could inform us of the specific exemption under the FOI Act and provide any available summary or non-exempt data.

Please could you answer the following questions about acute kidney injury (AKI) care.

Question 1: Does your trust have an AKI lead? (Yes/No)

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 1 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust is primarily a Mental Health and Community Health Trust and as such does not provide AKI services. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 2: Do you use an AKI bundle for patient care within your trust? (Yes/ No) - If so what care bundle do you use?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust is primarily a Mental Health and Community Health Trust and as such does not provide AKI services. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 3: Are you a paperless trust? (Yes/No)

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 3 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

Question 4: What electronic system do you use for electronic noting?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 4 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust is primarily a Mental Health and Community Health Trust and as such does not provide AKI services. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 5: Is your electronic noting system used for all healthcare professions within the organisation? (Yes/No)

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 5 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust is primarily a Mental Health and Community Health Trust and as such does not provide AKI services. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 6: Do you have AKI nurses within your trust? (Yes/No) -If so- how many? Are they clinical nurse specialists, advanced practitioners, or another role title? -Does their role banding meet national standards (Qualified Advanced Clinical Practitioners 8a, Trainee Advanced Clinical Practitioners- band 7, Lead Clinical Nurse Specialists – band 7, Clinical Nurse Specialist- band 6)? (Yes/No)

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 6 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
