Request:

Question 1: How many ADHD patients do you have currently?

Answer: Currently, there are 11,670 patients open to the Trust's ADHD services.

Question 2: What percentage of ADHD patients are prescribed stimulant medication?

Clarification: What percentage of ADHD patients are prescribed stimulant medication right now as you respond to this request?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 2 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 1(1) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 states:

*Any person making a request for information to a public authority is entitled—
(a) to be informed in writing by the public authority whether it holds information of the description specified in the request, and
(b) if that is the case, to have that information communicated to them.*

East London NHS Foundation Trust does not record the percentage of patients that are currently prescribed stimulant medication as requested and is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 3: How many ADHD patients have stopped taking stimulant medication since 2020?

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 3 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 40 for the FOI Act states:

(2) This exemption covers the personal data of third parties (anyone other than the requester) where complying with the request would breach any of the principles in the UK GDPR.

In order to provide the information requested, it would be necessary to access patient records as the information is not held in a searchable format. There is no legal basis to access patient records for the purposes of responding to a Freedom of Information request. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 4: Please specify how many patients stopped because of side effects they were experiencing and make a brief note of the side effect

Answer: The Trust has reviewed question 4 of your request for information under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2000.

Section 40 for the FOI Act states:

(2) This exemption covers the personal data of third parties (anyone other than the requester) where complying with the request would breach any of the principles in the UK GDPR.

In order to provide the information requested, it would be necessary to access patient records as the information is not held in a searchable format. There is no legal basis to access patient records for the purposes of responding to a Freedom of Information request. The Trust is therefore unable to provide a response.

Question 5: Since 2020 how many ADHD patients have been prescribed non-
