

Social Work Week

16-20th March

This year's Social Work Week takes place from 16-20th March and brings people together to celebrate social work. See below for ELFT's programme of online events.

16th March
13:00-14:00

Genograms

Jane Luby - London Borough of Newham (Children and Families)
A session that explores Genograms as a tool in case planning and in direct work with clients. This will include considering how they can help us to understand family strengths and resources, dynamics, and intergenerational "scripts" that may be influencing current difficulties.

17th March
13:00-14:00

Introduction to Strength-Based Practice

Allison Rosenthal - Social Worker & Independent Trainer

An interactive taster session that introduces the concept of using a strength-based approach and how it can be incorporated into practice.

18th March
12:00-13:00

Lunchtime Seminar - Patient and Carer Race Equality Framework

Juliana Ansah - Head of Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion, ELFT

March 2026 marks one year since the Patient and Carer Race Equality Framework (PCREF) was made mandatory. Juliana will be joining us to provide an update on this work.

19th March
13:00-14:00

Executive Capacity

Arianna Kelly - Barrister, 39 Essex Chambers

Click here to book sessions

16th March
15:00-16:00

Rights, Risk & Rehabilitation

ELFT's Head of Forensic Social Work Natalie Waghorn will be co-presenting with an expert by experience and other London forensic colleagues at an event run by Social Work England. The session will explore how social workers champion rights, manage risk and lead person-centred recovery in secure mental health care.

Click here to book